

ROUNDING TO AN EXCITING FINISH

Outing Man Talks Confidentially to Contestants for Times-Dispatch Vacation Trips.

IMPORTANT CHANGES NOTED

Influx of Votes from Certain Quarters Has Wrought Havoc With Standing of Some.

Now that the contest is entering upon its last week, it becomes necessary to get prepared for the ultimate object of the competition, which is a trip for the successful contestants. Many of you we do not know, in fact don't even know your addresses, and, therefore, it is impossible to communicate with you in any other way than through the columns of the Times-Dispatch, therefore please note and inwardly digest what is to follow:

From now on a daily bulletin of the standing of the various contestants will be issued, but you will all be able to know what exertions are necessary to land you at the top of the list. This week, of course, the XX coupons will be the principal object to be acquired, but there is one point to be noted, and that is the supply of July 15th papers will undoubtedly be sold out on that day, and that consequently the supply when this supply is exhausted it can in no way be replenished, and the next best thing to fall back on is the new subscription to the Times-Dispatch. To be perfectly candid with you, this is one of the objects of the competition, i. e., to do the work of some of our collectors and at the same time give these hard-worked individuals a chance of getting away for a vacation. Don't you see the idea, both of them? Let your work and earn a vacation, thus allowing them to get ahead of the game and get a vacation without upsetting the even tenor of the office routine.

Watch for It Eagerly.

On Sunday, July 22d, when the final result is published, there is no doubt that you will be looking for the Times-Dispatch long and it is timed to reach you. As soon as the result reaches the successful contestants, let it be your first duty, after you have imparted the joyful news to mother and father, Sister Mamie and little Sammy, sit down and write a note to the "Outing Man," enclosing a list of the various resorts, and opposite them a number indicating your preference, thus, Toxaway (1), Pine Beach (2), Covington (3), and so on, so that we may know right off where you want to go and be able to arrange accordingly. This will obviate the necessity of a great deal of correspondence, and be a great saving of time in getting you all away for your vacations. This refers only to the first nine contestants in both the State and city; the tenth and all below that position with 1,000 votes and over will be taken care of by the Outing Man; their names will be placed in a hat, you will all be well shaken up, one slip withdrawn, and that slip will contain the names of the party who wins the tenth trip. Any of those who have a chance for this contest prize are hereby invited to attend the drawing, which will take place punctually at 1 P. M. Monday, July 23d.

Cannot Transfer.

There have been many inquiries from parties who are afraid they are not going to win a trip, a bit faint-hearted or suffering from some similar disease, as to whether they can transfer their votes to some other party. The committee of distinguished citizens, and they have unanimously come to the conclusion that, at this stage of the game the procedure is not fair to the larger portion of the contestants. In the early stages of the contest a few and a few votes, or a few friends entered the names of some young ladies who did not wish to participate and then transferred their allegiance to some other party.

The most serious changes in positions have been made by the Misses Holloway and Allen, and the Misses Moore and Smith, who have dropped away down from last week's position, but we understand they are holding back for the XX coupons, and are in the race to be the Misses McCall and in inverse ratio for the consolation prize in which they have climbed up the list. In the State we note one more entry which shows a great amount of pluck in these latter stages of the game. No more entries, however, will be allowed after today.

The standing of the contestants is given here:

CITY.	STANDING
Misses H. Martin and S. Gordon	67,575
Misses Estelle Eubank and Bettie Ellis	63,538
Misses Eva Brooks and Clemmie Ford	47,339
Misses Lizzie Jones and Helen Martin	40,677
Misses Eleanor Haynes and Nancy Gregory	32,647
Misses Fanny Reese and Nancy McCann	28,136
Misses Kate McFall and Annie Allen	26,667
Misses Lottie Garber and Mamie Rice	25,552
Misses Eva King and Mrs. Farmer	25,022
Misses Blanche Holloway and Salie Allen	24,293
Misses M. E. Hubbard and W. C. Vaughan	18,767
Misses N. D. Smith and Miss S. W. Smith	17,897
Misses Alma and Grace Dillon	17,123
Mrs. Ida Roberts and Miss Filipp	17,019
Misses Estelle Moore and Nellie Smith	16,708
Misses Boatwright and Miss S. W. Smith	14,218
Misses Le Plane and Edith Allen	12,718
Misses Jean and Elise Lumsden	10,077
Misses E. C. and M. B. Turpin	9,213

Knight Templar of Colorado

Was Restored to Health by Pe-ru-na After a Long Illness.

M. R. JAMES J. ORBORN, 223 North Wahatch Avenue, Colorado Springs, Col., has filed all the positions in Knights Templars Masonic Order, was a Mason since 1886, Judge of County Court, Clinton, Mo., also County Collector of Clinton, Mo. writes:

"A sluggish liver, which I had been troubled with for two years, made life miserable and I was unable to attend to my business half the time. I lacked energy, had headache most of the time, and my food distressed me and did not seem to do me a particle of good.

"Reading of the many cures performed by Peruna, I decided that it would not hurt to try a bottle. Before I had taken many doses I certainly felt better, and by the time I had taken one bottle there was a marked change for the better. I took it as directed for two months, when I was a well man, able to go down to business every day and take hold of my work with renewed strength and vigor. You have an excellent remedy."

Sluggish Liver Relieved.

Sluggish Liver Described—How Pe-ru-na Relieves Such Cases.

A sluggish liver is brought about in the following ways: There is a catarrhal condition of the mucous membrane lining the stomach. This catarrhal condition spreads downward to that portion of the alimentary canal just below the stomach known as the duodenum.

Into the duodenum empty the bile ducts. These bile ducts are lined with mucous membrane continuous with the mucous membrane of the duodenum. The catarrhal inflammation therefore gradually spreads from the membranes of the stomach and duodenum into the bile ducts.

This thickens the mucous membranes and clogs up the ducts. The bile is then turned back into the liver, and the whole circulation of the liver impeded, producing what is known as a sluggish liver.

Cathartics bring only temporary relief. They flush out the liver for the time and relieve this sluggishness, but it has been the universal experience of mankind that the sluggishness will return very quickly.

The only permanent relief is obtained from a course of treatment that tends to allay the catarrhal inflammation. Thousands of people have found Peruna to be such a remedy. It removes the cause of the sluggishness of the liver by removing the catarrhal condition.

Patients of this kind are generally supposed to be afflicted with malaria, Quinine, alternated with physic, is the usual treatment. Disappointment generally follows such a treatment.

Those who have ever tried Peruna for such a condition never fail to go to it again whenever they have occasion to do so.

For a complete description of systemic catarrh, with all of its attendant difficulties, send for one of Dr. Hartman's free booklets, entitled, "Chronic Catarrh."

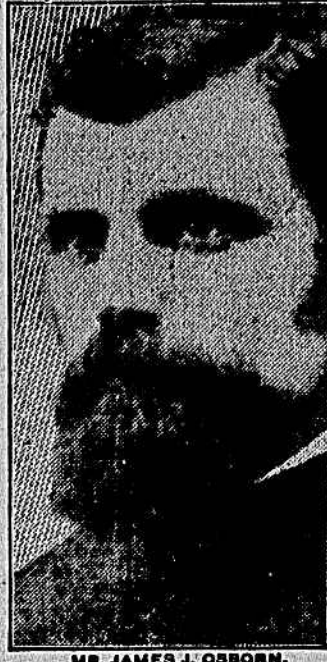

"Pe-ru-na Made Me Strong and Well."

Mr. Evan Evans, 209 East Fifth Street, Topeka, Kan., member I. O. O. F., writes:

"Liver and kidney trouble has caused me much pain for the past four years, leaving me weak and exhausted.

"I had at times intense pain on the right side and backache, and became so faint and weary that the perspiration would pour out and I would have to lie down.

"I found Peruna caused a great change through my entire system. It cured the catarrhal condition of the liver and kidneys, eliminated the poison from the system, created new blood and made me strong and well."

MR. JAMES J. ORBORN.

BROWNLOW'S FATE MAY BE SLEMP'S

The Two Regimes Are Similar, and Conditions Point to Like Results.

DISSATISFIED REPUBLICANS

The Democrats Are United and Determined to Have Fine Material.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

MARION, VA., July 14.—There are those who prophesy that the signal failure of the popular Tennessee Congressman, Walter P. Brownlow, in the councils of his party will very soon have its parallel in the overthrow of the Slomp regime in Virginia.

The recent overthrow of the easy boss of Tennessee Republicans, and the conditions leading up to his downfall after a long career as a dispenser of Federal patronage in the Volunteer State, give to some extent an insight into the state of affairs now prevailing in the Ninth Virginia district, where Congressman Campbell Slomp has for two successive terms held the reins of party power. The ability to hand out the gifts resulting from party supremacy in the Federal government would seem to be a dangerous thing even in the hands of Brownlow, who is a past master in the art of machine methods.

To the casual observer at the recent Marion convention which nominated Mr. Slomp to make the race for a third term in Congress the cut-and-dried nature of the proceedings was apparent, and the convention was marked by the absence of the life-giving Republicans who have heretofore been in the front in every contest in the district. The convention was undoubtedly harmonious, but whether sincerely so or not remains to be seen. Certain it is that the element which might have tended to the stirring up of the spirit of discord was in a past master in the art of machine methods.

That the Congressman has used his position of Virginia pie-distributor as judiciously as possible for his own interests in the political battles of the State was clearly shown in the convention, where his friends were apparently numerous and enthusiastic in his support, but the impossibility of satisfying everybody leads to the already acknowledged fact that there are those in his own party, and in no small number, who have their political knives sharpened for the destruction of the man from the Cumberland.

So far as can be determined then the present status of the Republican candidate seems to be this: By virtue of his service for two successive terms in Congress and his power in the State, he has gathered about him a coterie of Federal officeholders, supplemented by those members of his party who are satisfied with anything, provided it is Republican, and upon these, by the use of machine methods, he relies for the control of the large army of individual voters who alone can direct the political tide in the district.

In the meantime he has done little or nothing to commend him to the affection and support of these individual voters, who without office or the hope of Federal reward, and to whom he must look for success.

The Democrats of the district, on the other hand, are united as never before in their policy. They are not without their share of disappointed office-seekers, and more encouraged for success than all else, the party-workers and the voters are unusually interested in the selection of the proper candidate for the party, and are ready and anxious to work for his election.

While there has thus far been no avowed candidate for the nomination, good men in various sections of the district have been named anyone of whom would receive the hearty support of the party.

Many have been inclined to favor the nomination of former Congressman William F. Rhea, of Bristol, Judge Rhea is an untiring canvasser and knows the district from beginning to end. Should he consent to make the race, the contest would undoubtedly be made warm for Colonel Skump.

General Rufus A. Ayres, of Wise county, is another Democrat of high standing in the district, whose name has been frequently mentioned in connection with the nomination. Judge C. F. Duncan, of Lee county, is believed by his friends to be the most available candidate, and would doubtless stand an excellent show of winning.

It is believed that Judge G. H. Fudge, of Smyth county, would accept the nomination. Judge Fudge is a life-long Democrat and an excellent canvasser. He is one of the best stump speakers in the district, and has served the party well in this capacity in past years.

Another Marion man whose name has been mentioned, and whom his friends would like to see in public life, is former State Senator B. F. Buchanan. Mr. Buchanan is one of the successful attorneys of the Southwest, and is perhaps as

Here is the Opportunity for Men Who Want Good Clothes

Gans-Rady Company's Famous Semi-Annual Clearance Sale of Their Finest Suits

Begins To-Morrow Morning.

Take your unrestricted choice of nearly a thousand of the Finest Suits it was possible to produce.

Suits That Sold at $22.50, $25.00 and $27.50

At $14.75 for Choice

They require no further recommendation than that they are of OUR make. Every Suit has the Gans-Rady label, which stands for the very finest and most exclusive in Ready-to-Wear Clothes.

Another Sale of Suits at $9.75.

Several hundred of them. Lots of Homespuns, Cheviots and Cassimeres. Every one our own make.

Suits That Sold Regularly at $15, $18 and $20,

CHOICE TO-MORROW MORNING,

$9.75

Gans-Rady Company

YOUNG RICHMONDERS VERY HAPPY IN CAMP

Athletic Games, Camp Fire, Fun and Religious Instruction.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CAMP RICHMOND, CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., July 14.—The members of the Richmond Central Y. M. C. A. trip, six strong, reached their summer camp here yesterday without mishap. All are well and enjoying life in the hill country. Appetites good and commissary department adequate.

J. B. Hobbs and H. D. Cogbill are editing the "Camp Richmond" which is issued daily; circulation of one copy, which is read at the campfire.

A baseball league of three teams is playing a series of games. Other games are popular—quits, volleyball and tennis. The baseball is in charge of J. D. Starnes. There are two swimming periods daily, the swimming being in charge of C. V. Robinson.

Mail is received here twice a day. The boys have a big time around the campfire every night with songs, jokes, stories, roasts, and finishing with a serious thought as a nightcap.

A short Bible study is held every morning, taken from the Life of Jesus in the mountains.

After dinner a practical talk on first aid to the injured is given by the camp director. To-day the subject was "The Resuscitation of the Apparently Drowned." The camp leaders are Messrs. C. E. Brauer, C. B. Robinson, J. B. Hobbs, H. C. Robinson, J. D. Starnes, H. D. Cogbill, Jr., and C. B. Selden.

The view from Camp Richmond is a beautiful one. Backed by the Monticello Mountain, at its foot lies the winding Rappahannock, and across as far as the eye can reach may be seen the hills and valleys of the Rugged Mountains and, way in the distance, the peaks of the Blue Ridge.

MRS. JAMISON TO JURY.

Woman in Black, Charged With Forgery, Waives Examination.

Mrs. M. Jeannette Jamison, charged with forging checks to the amount of about $50, appeared in Police Court yesterday, after being held by her attorney, Mr. Justice, waived the preliminary examination and had her case forwarded to the Grand Jury.

Dressed in a neat-fitting suit of black, and with a heavy black veil concealing her face from the curious crowd, Mrs. Jamison sat behind her lawyer and waited for the time that her case would be called. She did not speak to any one, and was taken from the courtroom and locked back to jail immediately after the disposition of her case.

The reason she was not kept in the City Hall in the past after the case was called, was because of the fact that she called ill. She went to bed immediately after returning to the jail.

JEFFERSON LAWBREAKER.

Namesake of the Great Statesman Gets Into Trouble.

Thomas Jefferson, a negro, had a lively time throwing rocks into the stable yard adjoining the City Jail. Several rocks that he hurled into the stable struck the city mules, but not for a minute did Thomas stop his amusement. The muleman may be seen the hills and valleys of the Rugged Mountains and, way in the distance, the peaks of the Blue Ridge.

Charles Mann, a small stock of leecore, was charged with being incorrigible. Justice Crutchfield said there was no room in the negro reformatory for the black spot on humanity's brink, and just shoed him out of the court-room, with a warning to be good or 'git skinned."

Wilbur Goddin, a young white man, whose gray-haired father's plea to Justice Crutchfield brought him from jail this week, was drunk the night before. Young Goddin was in the jail serving a sentence for being drunk when his father came to Justice Crutchfield this week and entreated the wise old justice to allow his son to come home. The request was granted with the proviso that if the young man was arrested for drunkenness again in twelve months he was to be sent to jail for one year, and that the sentence should not be interfered with.

And young Goddin was too weak to withstand the temptations, and that's the reason he started yesterday morning to serve out a sentence that will end in 1907.

James Johnson stole a pair of pants from Samuel Bachrach, and went to jail for six months, and James Hodges, alias Hines, will tell a jury why he cut Eli Jordan.

FIVE PERSONS ILL FROM BAD SEWERAGE

Physician Utters Note of Warning for Those Living Under Such Conditions.

Out of nine in the family of Mr. August J. Faulhaber, of No. 623 North Fourth Street, five are down with fever, which has been brought about by bad connections and leakages in the sewer pipes of the residence. Mr. Faulhaber and four children are ill, and the responsibility of caring for them and of running the household rests upon the wife and the other four children, all of whom are small.

In speaking of the case a prominent physician of the city, said that several such cases have come under his notice, and that all of them have been due to poor sewerage connections. The gas and bad odors escaping from such connections and leakages, he said, are a menace to human life and health, as they result in such a general devastating effect as to render the constitution of those living in houses where these conditions prevail susceptible to all manner of disease. He referred to a case in point where a young child had recently died, his death being directly traceable to the foul gas that escaped from a leakage in a sewer pipe.

Such a physician referred to several other cases, all of which could have been prevented. He said that he had been called to the owners of the houses, but without avail, until the city plumbing inspector had been called in and had forced the owners to remedy the conditions, the cost in every case having been borne by the owners, who would have been the case had they at once made the repairs necessary.

Though such cases are not general, yet they are of sufficient importance, said the same informant, as to be a warning to both the house owners who may have to encounter such conditions, and to the owners, who must inevitably pay the cost of plumbing repairs.

FAULKNER-WARRINER GIVE CLERKS HOLIDAY

The department store of the Faulkner and Warriner Company, First and Broad Streets, will be open until 6 o'clock each evening, except Saturdays, when it will be closed until 7 P. M. This rule has been adopted, after the matter had been voted upon by the entire corps of employees.

Previously it has been the custom of the store to allow the employees an hour or two off each day during the hot summer months, but this year the employees voted to maintain the hour or two off holiday instead of an hour or so a day. The employees will be paid while off duty on their holidays.

The new rule will begin next Monday.

Richmonders in New York.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, July 14.—Fifth Avenue Dr. C. A. Blanton, Mrs. J. K. Jones, Grand-Mrs. M. Wyatt, Marlborough, Miss L. Lindsay, W. P. Rodd and wife, Woodward, W. Miller, Miss C. J. Miller, Buckingham-Mrs. J. Willard, Miss B. W. Willard, Gerard-E. P. Focht.

SOCKS HIS FAD; LEAVES 52 PAIRS; FETCH DIME

Physician and Philanthropist Wore Rainbows on His Feet.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WASHINGTON, PA., July 14.—Dr. J. M. Morrison, who died recently, was a wealthy physician and philanthropist, and his fad was socks.

When he died last week one of the assets which he left was fifty-two pairs of socks of all the shades and colors of the rainbow. In his will he directed that all his effects be sold, and yesterday the socks were put up with his other things.

No one in Washington had such a long list of socks as old Dr. Morrison, who was in the auctioneer's argued low and loud, he could get but one bid for the lot. That was for 10 cents, and the fifty-two pairs were finally disposed of at that price.

Get It To-day

Get Good Luck Baking Powder. This done, you'll certainly have no more baking disappointments or spoiled meals. Over half a million women use Good Luck. There's room for you.

GOOD LUCK Baking Powder

sells at 10c per pound and is always kept sweet and dry in the new patent can. Its fine leavening and wholesome qualities cannot be beaten. Save the label coupons for many handsome presents.

If not at your dealer's write THE SOUTHERN MFG. CO., Richmond, Va.

WIFE MOVES SO OFTEN HE WANTS A DIVORCE

Never Knows Where to Find His Family When Work Ends.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHICAGO, July 14.—Insisting that he is no nomad, and that he is tired of being continually on the move, Frederick Rose appeared in Judge Heard's court and asked for a divorce.

"I can't keep up the pace," he told the court. "Every time I save a dollar or two out of my wages my wife moves. That takes money."

"How many moves are you behind now?" asked the judge.

"About two, and I can't tell when she will send for another dray. Then I am a home lover, and I like to know where I am through with my work where I can find my family."

A little son of Rose said his mother had a violent temper, and frequently whipped the father.

"Did your father hit your mother?" he was asked.

"I think not," was the reply. "He knows better."

WISCONSIN'S RICHEST MAN FOR INCOME TAX

Isaac Stephenson Says Poor Bear More Than Their Share.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

MILWAUKEE, July 14.—Isaac Stephenson, reputed to be the wealthiest man in Wisconsin, says the poor man bears more than his share of the tax burden, while the rich bear less, and there should be a graded income tax.

"The workingman does not pay a large amount of tax upon his homestead," said Mr. Stephenson, "but he pays a higher percentage of tax on its real value than the rich man does on his many forms of property."

Take the case of Marshall Field, of Chicago. In that city he paid taxes on less than $3,000,000, but now that his estate is in court it appears that his property in that city is worth five or six times more than that.

"There is no doubt in my mind that a tax on all incomes over $1,000 is the right thing."

Mr. Stephenson was until recently a political ally of United States Senator La Follette, and aided him in the fight on Senator Spooner. It was said that

Roses, Cut Flowers, and Designs.

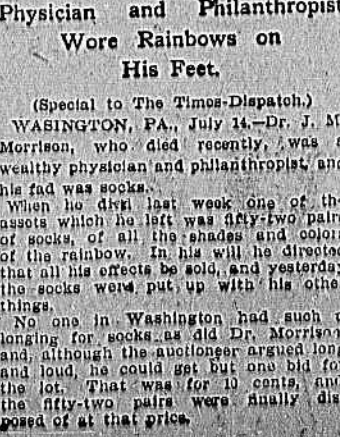

Largest Stock.

Hammond, Florist,

109 East Broad Street.

Ask Dealers FOR KASTELBERG HOME KILLED-RICHMOND FRESH MEAT

TEETH preserved to middle age are pretty sure to last out one's lifetime. The greatest known preservative of the teeth is SOZODONT. Why? Because being an Alkaline and Antiseptic Liquid, it penetrates the minutest crevices of the teeth, destroying the deadly mouth acids and purifying the whole tooth structure.

Physician and Philanthropist Wore Rainbows on His Feet.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WASHINGTON, PA., July 14.—Dr. J. M. Morrison, who died recently, was a wealthy physician and philanthropist, and his fad was socks.

When he died last week one of the assets which he left was fifty-two pairs of socks of all the shades and colors of the rainbow. In his will he directed that all his effects be sold, and yesterday the socks were put up with his other things.

No one in Washington had such a long list of socks as old Dr. Morrison, who was in the auctioneer's argued low and loud, he could get but one bid for the lot. That was for 10 cents, and the fifty-two pairs were finally disposed of at that price.

Get It To-day

Get Good Luck Baking Powder. This done, you'll certainly have no more baking disappointments or spoiled meals. Over half a million women use Good Luck. There's room for you.

GOOD LUCK Baking Powder

sells at 10c per pound and is always kept sweet and dry in the new patent can. Its fine leavening and wholesome qualities cannot be beaten. Save the label coupons for many handsome presents.

If not at your dealer's write THE SOUTHERN MFG. CO., Richmond, Va.

WIFE MOVES SO OFTEN HE WANTS A DIVORCE

Never Knows Where to Find His Family When Work Ends.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHICAGO, July 14.—Insisting that he is no nomad, and that he is tired of being continually on the move, Frederick Rose appeared in Judge Heard's court and asked for a divorce.

"I can't keep up the pace," he told the court. "Every time I save a dollar or two out of my wages my wife moves. That takes money."

"How many moves are you behind now?" asked the judge.

"About two, and I can't tell when she will send for another dray. Then I am a home lover, and I like to know where I am through with my work where I can find my family."

A little son of Rose said his mother had a violent temper, and frequently whipped the father.

"Did your father hit your mother?" he was asked.

"I think not," was the reply. "He knows better."

WISCONSIN'S RICHEST MAN FOR INCOME TAX

Isaac Stephenson Says Poor Bear More Than Their Share.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

MILWAUKEE, July 14.—Isaac Stephenson, reputed to be the wealthiest man in Wisconsin, says the poor man bears more than his share of the tax burden, while the rich bear less, and there should be a graded income tax.

"The workingman does not pay a large amount of tax upon his homestead," said Mr. Stephenson, "but he pays a higher percentage of tax on its real value than the rich man does on his many forms of property."

Take the case of Marshall Field, of Chicago. In that city he paid taxes on less than $3,000,000, but now that his estate is in court it appears that his property in that city is worth five or six times more than that.

"There is no doubt in my mind that a tax on all incomes over $1,000 is the right thing."

Mr. Stephenson was until recently a political ally of United States Senator La Follette, and aided him in the fight on Senator Spooner. It was said that

Roses, Cut Flowers, and Designs.

Largest Stock.

Hammond, Florist,

109 East Broad Street.